

Ella was born May 4, 1929 in the home she and Harold live in today. Her hobbies of crocheting, (doilies, afghans and bedspreads) have brought her first place ribbons at County and State Fair competitions over a span of 41 years. Ella has enjoyed quilting, baking and cleaning.

Their children, David (high school math and computer science teacher in Hawaii), and Nile (welder, welding pipe for the artificial snowblowers at Park City), and five grandchildren, Joshua, Sarah, Joseph, Shane and Jamie, love coming to Wallsburg to enjoy the Christmas outdoor decorations the Mechams put out each holiday season.

In 1964, Wasatch County's Jaycee's awarded the Mecham's their first Christmas Lighting Contest award. Three years later, 1967, they again won the Jaycee's Residential award. In 1986, they won the Heber Valley Chamber of Commerce Christmas Decorating award. Every year the Mecham's add to their Christmas display.

This year reindeer, sleigh and Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus were added. Harold and Ella say "If things keep going, they'll have to start on the barn yard." There's always lots to see and enjoy as you pass by the Mecham home.

Since 1978, holiday music is played each day the scenes are enjoyed. Harold and Ella say it's their way of giving in the true spirit to the community. "This is our way of showing appreciation for our lives." Thanks to them, we all share in their special tradition!

Thinking Aloud: Resolutions are in order this time of year. And so it is with me.
